Visiting Stafford Borough Council Civic Centre

By Train

Stafford, part of the West Coast Main Line, has excellent rail links.

On leaving the station, cross the road into Victoria Park. Follow the path over the footbridge and turn right past the bowling green. At the park gates, turn right to the clock tower next to the River Sow. Turn left along the pedestrian walkway next to the river for 100 yards to the Civic Centre entrance.

Victoria Park is closed during hours of darkness (after 4.30pm in the winter). Alternative route via Victoria Road, Tenterbanks and Mill Bank.

For rail ticket and timetable information, contact the National Rail Enquiry Bureau on 0345 484950 or the Virgin Rail Ticket Hotline on 0345 222333.

By Car from the M6

From the North.

Leave the M6 at Junction 14 and take the A34 Stone Road towards Stafford town centre.

From the South.

Leave the M6 at Junction 13 and follow the A449 Wolverhampton Road towards Stafford town centre.

Cycle Facilities

Secure cycle parking facilities are available at the Civic Centre. Ask at reception on arrival.

By Air

Stafford is approximately 1h - 1h 30 mins from the following airports; Birmingham International, East Midlands, Manchester and Liverpool.

By Bus or Coach

Stafford is well-served by buses. The nearest stops to the Civic Centre are on South Walls and Bridge Street.

For more information on bus or coach services, telephone Staffordshire Busline on 01785 223344.
